Regulations for trading on Stocks Green, Castle Acre

Stocks Green, Castle Acre, is owned and managed by Castle Acre Parish Council. The area of Stocks Green is designated on the attached outline map. Castle Acre Parish Council does not allow any trading of goods or services on Stocks Green without the express permission of the Council, obtained by submitting an application form four weeks before the trading date.

As a general rule, fundraising in support of village charities (eg: cake stalls), facilities and events will be allowed but each application will be assessed on its merits. However, the Council will not grant permission for:

- The sale of cooked food and drinks from a commercial mobile van or stall (except for authorised fundraising).
- The sale of ice cream from a commercial mobile van.
- The sale of toys and games
- The playing of loud music from speakers adjacent to stalls or at events.
